

Racism in the CJS

bme crime

Sentencing

Prison

Probation

who

Roger Hood 1992

Hudson 1988

Denney 1992

Caverley 2004

stats

more likely

lower reconviction rates

racial discrimination

Home Office 1989

Brown & Hullin 1992

Moxon 1988

Voakes & Fowler 1989

per 100

Newburn 2007

Genders & Player (1989)

anticipated behaviour

Disciplinary proceedings

written assessments held on inmate records

Process of wing & cell allocation

allocation of labour

offenders

victims

workers

males

1950s onwards

afro-caribbean

asian

1990s - 21st century

changing perception of bme

BME do more

pleade not guilty

arrested on suspicion

acquitted

3% more chance of custodial viewed by stereotypes

ignored bme till late 70s

Probation service

86% satisfied by their supervisor